

Rob and Kaye's Bible

Locum priest Rob Healy and wife Kaye have given a Read With Me Bible to every child Rob has baptised over the past 22 years, including Lenon Richardson last Sunday. It is designed for a parent to read to a child and discuss the stories. The illustrations enable further discussion.

Sentence: God's love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. (Romans 5:5)

Collect/Prayer of the Day: O God, Who in smoke and fire upon Mt Sinai gave the law to Moses, and who revealed the new covenant in the fire of the Spirit: Grant we pray, that, kindled by that same Spirit which you poured forth upon your apostles, we may fulfil with joy your commandment of love. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, now and for ever. Amen

Please join us for fellowship and morning tea after the service

Unsung heroes — until now!

There are many unsung heroes in our parish who just get on with the work that has to be done.

And two were at it at both All Saints and St Mary's last week, but there just happened to be others around with cameras!

At All Saints, Ian McFarlane was up a ladder cleaning gutters in The Cloisters.

"Winter is now welcome to bucket down with rain and our drainage will cope," quipped parish treasurer Greg Fawell, the camera sleuth.

At St Mary's, Mike Salmon was busy spraying weed killer and is pictured outside the Minchin Centre.

For Mike, it is a real devotion to duty. Following a serious accident several years ago, his mobility is somewhat restricted and he usually has to use two walking sticks to get around.

PARISH ANNUAL MEETING JUNE 26

Three weeks from today, on June 26, 2022, all enrolled parishioners will have the opportunity to vote in their new wardens and parish councillors.

The annual meeting of enrolled members (AMEM) will be held in the Minchin Centre after the 9am combined service in St Mary's.

There are two important things you must do before you can vote and/or stand for election. They are:

- Complete the Enrolled Member form on the welcome table.
- If you intend to seek nomination as a warden or parish councillor, ensure your completed and signed nomination form is lodged by June 19, two weeks from now.

Nomination forms will be available in both churches.

Locum priest Rob Healy urged parishioners to consider who can serve in these positions — "It may be you!"

Church officers such as secretary and treasurer are selected by the incoming parish council. Rob said as locum, he could not appoint a Priest's Warden.

Morning tea will be provided in the Minchin Centre after the service. The meeting is scheduled to start at about 11am.

The history behind Trinity Sunday

NEXT Sunday is Trinity Sunday, the first Sunday after Pentecost, on which we celebrate the Christian doctrine of the Trinity, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

The doctrine of the Trinity is considered to be one of the central Christian affirmations about God.

Trinity Sunday's origins can be traced back almost 1400 years, when it was instituted by Pope Gregory IX in the year 828.

The day is known for being the only major Christian festival that celebrates a church doctrine rather than an event in its history.

In the Anglican Church, after the consecration of Thomas Beckett as Archbishop of Canterbury on June 3, 1162 (the first Sunday after Pentecost), his first act was to ordain that the day of his consecration should, in future, be celebrated as a new festival in honour of the Holy Trinity.

New candles from old

DURING the recent parish clean-up, a heap of "used" candles from St Marys and All Saints were passed on to Helga Aldinger for recycling.

A friend of Helga and husband Carl (pictured at right) has donated equipment that allows them to make domestic use candles. It includes a portable stove heater for melting, wick holders, a thermometer, scents and colours and a start up set of candle jars (a donation of over $200!).

The friend then recently held a workshop with Carl and Helga, at which they made their first set of candles.

Their candles are now being offered to parishioners as gifts or for self-use.

They will be on sale from today (June 5) at $12 each and all profits will go to church funds..

Things you should know

PARISH OFFICE ROSTER: THE parish office in the Minchin Centre is manned (personed?!) each week day up until about 1pm. Locum priest Ron Healy is also in his office on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday. Those on the office volunteer roster are: Glenys Davis (Mondays), Christine Fawell (Tuesdays), Greg Fawell (Wednesdays), Gaye Moses (Thursdays) and Tom Winterbourn (Fridays). They work on their own specific projects but are also available to answer queries from parishioners and the general public (on matters such as church and Minchin Centre bookings), or to get answers from more appropriate people.

WELCOME to our service today, on The Day of Pentecost and the last Sunday after Easter. Next Sunday is Trinity Sunday, the first Sunday after Pentecost.
