

A Word From the LocumBible Reading

Can I encourage you to read your Bibles everyday. Our Lenten Study has us looking at the Psalms, but they are just part of God's Word to us. It is good if we read across the whole Bible. There are various reading plans that you could use.

"I downloaded them from a cloud."

A simple plan would be to put five bookmarks in your Bible according to the list below:

1. Pentateuch (Genesis-Deuteronomy)
2. History (Joshua-Esther)
3. Poetry & Prophets (Job-Malachi)
4. Gospels & Acts
5. Epistles & Revelation

Read a chapter a day for each bookmark. This will take through each type of literature.

Can I also encourage you to bring your Bible to Church to follow the set readings. Give it a go.

Blessings -- Revd Rob Healy

A prayer in the midst of war

Lord Jesus Christ,
we cry out to you in shock and grief
for the lives being lost and the damage being done in Ukraine, in Russia, and around the world.
Wherever deadly hate is in people's hearts,
come and disarm the violent with your words of peace and acts of forgiveness.
Wherever people are weeping
for their shattered communities or their beloved friends, come and plant seeds of hope with your promise of resurrection life and a new creation.
Come, Lord Jesus.
Come, Lord Jesus.
